Congratulations! Your Yahoo mail account is now set up to send as your UH alias. If you would like to set up your UH alias as the address that Yahoo always sends as, you can go back to Options->More options->Mail Accounts, click your name, and put a check mark into the "Default sending account" box, then click Save.

When you are in the email composition screen, there will be a menu for the "From" address, which you can change as you like.
